PHILADELPHIA MAGAZINE

STYLE REPORT: SEPTEMBER 11, 2008

BY ASHLEY PRIMIS

Made-to-order

There's an event going on at Les Richards (pronounced Les, as in Leslie, not as in Lei) at Liberty Place today. It's all about custom shirts: Newest collars and fabrics. Get measured and order 4 for $350. Let Richards had snazzy looking models wearing snazzy gear at the Rittenhouse Row fall festival.

Pretty Baubles

Katie K in Haverford has a fun new thing: It's own customizable jewelry line out this month. You choose disks (hammered or un-hammered silver) with or without charms. Looks like a cute, updated version of showing your kid or bf-love.

Feng What?

Curious about Feng Shui? Sandi Young from Moderne Life Interiors in Jenkintown is hosting an event tonight (5:30-8) on furniture placement for a more zen room and will have clothing from Denise Shardlow who designs cool bamboo stuff.

PS: Tomorrow I'll hit up openings for two new stores (Gramercy and Main Line Green Home) and report back next week!
